

Hotel closure

Dear friends of Bruntsfield Hotel

As the current Covid-19 situation continues to develop in more devastating ways, it is affecting all businesses. This situation is expected to continue for some weeks and months.

We have continued to monitor the situation and follow government advice to ensure the health and wellbeing of our guests and our team in the hotel. Following the recent announcement by the Prime Minister, we are unable to accommodate guests in our bar, restaurant, wedding facilities and meeting facilities. We have therefore taken the difficult but necessary decision to close the hotel for overnight guests, dining, weddings and meeting & events until further notice.

If you have a bedroom reservation, a restaurant, a wedding or an event booking with us in the next four weeks, we will be contacting you directly to discuss options for moving your booking to a future date. From today (23rd March) our reservations team will be available via e-mail to discuss accommodation bookings, please use reservations@thebruntsfield.co.uk and for weddings, meetings and private events use gm@thebruntsfield.co.uk

The weeks and months ahead will be difficult and ever-changing for us all and we are fully committed to supporting our team through this difficult time. We will continue to send e-mail updates and continue our communication through our website and Facebook page so please do follow us on Facebook. We sincerely hope to be able to bring you more positive news when we will be fully open as soon as possible.

We hope to welcome you back to the Bruntsfield Hotel in the not too distant future. In the meantime, on behalf of all the team, please do take care of yourselves, your families and your communities.

Your sincerely

Alistair Bruce
General Manager
